Oil paints (Lo Chan Peng's recommended color list at the bottom)

Linseed oil

Gamsol by Gamblin

Liquin

egg oil (will be made during the workshop)

Canvas

Laptop or iPad (for painting from photos)

Brushes in various sizes (many small brushes needed)

Canvas

Wood or disposable paper pallet works well but many Plein air easels have a built in palette and yours may too.

Brushes

Assortment of boar bristle brushes (I suggest large #10 or #12, medium #6 or #8, and small #2 or #4 in Flats or Bright)

Painting Surface

Canvas mounted on board or gessoed wood panel (sizes can range from 6x8 to 12x16 My favorite size is 11x14). Canvas mounted panels are great for outside since they do not let the sun shine through.

Paints

If you can, spend the extra for professional grade paints. I use Holbein, Old Holland, Talens series Winsor & Newton and Gamblin and there are many other good options. Windsor Newton has Cadmium free colors that you can substitute for all the Cad colors. My color list is just a suggestion since it's what I commonly use in my system. Students just need to find these colors as closely as possible.
